Chapter Ten
Vegetables and Herbs
Questions

1. Select the incorrect statement:
   A. All vegetables require 8 hours of sunlight daily.
   B. Choose a site near the home to make gardening more convenient.
   C. Avoid placing the garden near trees and shrubs.
   D. As recommended by a soil test, fertilize the garden based on the needs of the crops being planted.

2. List three vegetables that should be grown from transplants:
   A. _____
   B. _____
   C. _____

3. Select the correct statement:
   A. During growth, vegetables need about 1" of irrigation per week, independent of rainfall.
   B. Average frost dates are the same throughout Texas.
   C. Planting vegetable varieties known to do well in Bell County and at the proper time increases the likelihood of having a successful garden.
   D. There is no significant benefit to raised beds in a home garden.

4. List four methods that can be used to extend the growing season.
   A. _____
   B. _____
   C. _____
   D. _____

5. Select the incorrect statement:
   A. Herbs commonly used in cooking are called culinary herbs.
   B. Herbs can be propagated from seed, cuttings, or by division.
   C. Master Gardeners should recommend herbs for medicinal purposes.
   D. Care for herb gardens as you would for a vegetable or flower garden.

6. Select the correct statement:
   A. A fall garden is generally planted in the fall.
   B. Number of days to maturity should guide when you plant a fall crop.
   C. Frost sensitive crops should be planted so that they mature 1 week before the annual first frost date.
   D. Crops that grow well in a fall garden grow equally well in a spring garden.