

El Paso County Master Gardeners at Ardivino's Farmers Market

June 2 through August 25, 2018

Saturday mornings from 7:30 a.m.—12 noon

Along with our wonderful vegetables for sale, we have a jam packed educational calendar!

Summer Schedule of Events:

June 2: Bring your garden tools for a good cleaning and sharpening! We will have loofahs, garlic and herb gardens for sale!

June 9: Watch how loofah soap is made. We are giving out loofah seeds to start your own loofah garden!

June 16: Learn how to make Fairy Gardens using Succulents. We are giving away Jade and succulent babies!

June 23: Learn how to make a Pollinator Hotel (aka Bee House) to attract pollinators to your yard!

June 30: Buy some garlic and learn how to braid it! We'll also be teaching all about garlic from how to grow and use, as well as the healing power of garlic!

July 7: Learn how to make delicious salad dressing using dried herbs. We'll be giving away recipes and dried herbs!

July 14: Learn how to dry herbs. We will be giving away a recipe for sugar scrub and some dried lavender to make it!

July 21: Learn how to make a rain barrel to capture nature's most prized commodity in the desert!

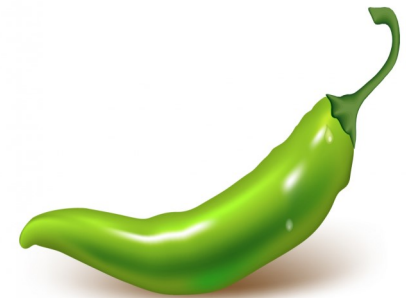

July 28: Learn all about Accessible Gardening. Don't let anything stop you from growing whatever you love!

August 4: Cooking demonstration from Jim Hastings, The Gringo Gourmet! Don't miss this very popular event!

August 11: Learn everything there is to know about growing, harvesting, and using pomegranates!

August 18: Watch a fun demonstration on Gourd painting by Karen Kozad! Fun fall items!

August 25: We are ending the season as we began: bring in your tools for a cleaning and sharpening tune-up!

As always, we are here to answer your gardening questions!

We will have our 'El Paso Gardening Handbook' available for sale each week for $10!

see you at the market!
